Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Speech of Mr. Everett, of Massachusetts: Delivered in the Senate of the United States, Feb 8, 1854, Nebraska and Kansas Territorial Bill Mr. Everett said: Mr. President, I intimated yesterday that if time had been allowed, I should have been glad to submit to the Senate my views at some length in relation to some of the grave constitutional and political principles and questions involved in the measure before us. Even for questions of a lower order, those of a merely historical character, the time which has elapsed since this bill, in its present form, was brought into the Senate, which I think is but a fortnight ago yesterday, has hardly been sufficient, for one not previously possessed of the information, to acquaint myself fully with the details belonging to the subject before us, even to these which relate to subordinate parts of it, such as our Indian relations. Who will undertake to say how they will be affected by the measure now before the Senate, either under the provisions of the bill in that respect as it stood yesterday, or as it will stand now that all the sections relative to the Indians have been stricken out? And then, sir, with respect to that other and greater subject, the question of slavery as connected with our recent territorial acquisitions, it would take a person more than a fortnight to even read through the voluminous debates since 1848, the knowledge of which is necessary for a thorough comprehension of this important and delicate subject. For these reasons, sir, I shall not undertake at this time to discuss any of these larger questions. I rise for...
