SPECIFICATIONS. In preparing manuscript, write on one side of the paper only and use sheets of uniform size. Use the typewriter, if convenient. If written by hand, print all proper names carefully. Allow space between lines so that corrections can be made without crowding. A foot-note should be written in the manuscript immediately under the place to which it refers, and a line should be drawn across the page both above and below it. Foot-notes should be carefully given. An asterisk or other sign may serve to correlate one or two notes, but when many foot-notes are necessary it is best to number them, thus: 1E. A. F.
