Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Recollections of Mexico: And the Battle of Buena Vista, Feb; 22 and 23, 1847 [Although it has always been the intention of the writer to record for his own satisfaction, his memories of the scenes occurring in Mexico, at or about the time of the battle of Buena Vista, this record might have been procrastinated, - just as repentance is too often said to be, - but for a feeling of duty towards an association of gentlemen, each of whom contributes for the general information from the stores of his own professional knowledge. Even now this is offered with some hesitation, because this battle, which appeared to us and to the country as of such great importance at the time, is dwarfed into insignificance by the giant struggles of these later days, whose warriors were counted by millions, and their dead by hundreds of thousands, - which gave an emperor to reunited Germany, and a president to the re United States. Yet this lesser struggle, where our soldiers were but as many thousands, and our dead as many hundreds, was still the bloodiest strife that our country had ever then known. And this victory likewise gave a president to our great country. This narrative is offered really from personal recollections only, first written down within a very few days recently, as an offering to the association above alluded to. But the recollection of these events has so crowded upon the memory, that much may appear to be of minor detail and of lesser interest. Yet there may be an excuse for introducing many of these incidents which would scarcely become the grave page of history,...
