After the Court adjourned the following appeared in the Chicago Daily Journal of Sept. 13, 1851, over the signature of S. A. Hurlbut, one of the Counsel: Editors Chicago Journal, Gents: --As a great deal of excitement was stirred up some time since, by the story of an allotted murder committed in this town, with which the name of Mr. Samuel L. Keith was connected by public report, it is proper that the same publicity should be given to the justification which that gentleman has at length received under the law. In the time of the excitement alluded to, no pains were spared here or elsewhere to give currency to the charges against Mr....

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
