Excerpt: . . . taxes for these bonds, leaving the holders of the bond if they have passed into the hands of bone fide holders for value without notice to assert in a separate action such right as the rules of law accord in such cases. The plaintiff is entitled to whatever relief a court of equity, with its comprehensive powers in that respect, can afford him, and to which the facts to be ascertained upon a trial of the action may entitle him. Judgment reversed. Contract for legal services--Promised to perform further services or assignment of one-half of judgment--Contract not champertous--Right of subrogee; assignee. 1. Legal services rendered by an attorney in the prosecution of a suit to judgment in the court of common pleas, and a promise to perform further services if error proceedings should be instituted in the circuit or supreme court, constitute a valid consideration for an assignment of one-half of such judgment, and the contract is not champertous. 2. Such assignment will convey to the assignee a property right in the judgment. This right is not enforceable in a suit at law at the instance of the assignee against the judgment debtor only, but may be enforced in equity. 3. It is not in the power of the judgment debtor, after knowledge of such assignment, to compromise the debt with the assignor Railway Co. 1. Volkert et al. alone, and thus defeat the claim of the assignee to recover one-half of the...
