Reviews

Extensive guideline! Its such a great go through. It is definitely basic but surprises in the 50 % of the pdf. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Ralston, Governor: Sir - One year has elapsed since I assumed the position as State Examiner of the State Board of Accounts. In reviewing the work of the past year, I am much gratified with the hearty cooperation and uniform courtesy extended this department by the public officers of Indiana. The mission of the State Board of Accounts is to impartially investigate the public offices of Indiana, to prescribe and install a uniform system of accounting that is practical, economical and understandable; to clearly define the duties of officials so they will be no longer in doubt as to the correct method of transacting the business of their respective offices, and, through our legal department, to advise the officials on the legal construction of the statutes with the view of aiding officials in the proper discharge of their duties. Field Examiners. The work of examination of public offices, and the installation of public records is assigned to field examiners. This important work should be done by efficient accountants, of unquestionable character, who are thoroughly familiar with the offices they are assigned to examine and the duties imposed upon the officials by statute. In reorganizing the field force, in order that I might retain only men of the highest standard of efficiency, I have exerted every effort to obtain men who would meet every requirement as to character, ability as accountants, and knowledge of the duties of officials. It is difficult for the general public to understand the great necessity of securing the most efficient men possible for the investigation and...
