Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from My Horse; My Love Ah, this is delightful, exclaimed the Count, as he held his hands toward the cheerful blaze of a bright wood fire, on our broad old hearthstone. The Count had come to make us a long-promised visit in the early autumn; arriving at the twilight hour of a dreary day, chill and bleak, with a persistent soaking rain, and a gusty, southing wind. For one long week the sun had hidden his face behind the dull and sodden sky, depriving us of the solace even of a brisk walk, or a game at tennis, in these last days of our summer sojourn by the seaside. So we heard the roar of the ocean, and the howling wind outside, with a pleasing sense of comfort in the contrast, as we watched the wide flames, now shooting up with a noisy crackling Energy, now dying down to a hissing mysterious whisper. Conversation was brisk, for the Count had such an inexhaustible fund of romance, fact, story, and adventure, that we gave him little chance...
